

American Indian Forum

Sponsored by N.A.T.I.V.E PROJECT and the WASHINGTON STATE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

The Commission will hold its annual Spokane meeting:
6:30 p.m. on Thursday, May 25, 2006.

Gonzaga Law School Room 226, 721 N. Cincinnati St.
Spokane, Washington.

The purpose of this meeting is to gather information about issues that affect the American Indian Communities in the Spokane Area. The public is invited to attend and participate.

Let the voices of the First Peoples be heard!

Some topics include:

- Proposed Federal Elimination of Urban Indian Health Care Funding
- Culturally appropriate social services
- Education
- Justice system
- Employment and housing

For more information or accommodation for a disability please call 509-568-3196 or email
sfrary@hum.wa.gov

Language interpreters
available by request

